COACHES' BIOS

An Atlanta Native, Nellie Christian has played soccer since the age of four. After playing for a local select team and her high school, she graduated from Brookwood High School (Snellville, Georgia) in 1994. In the fall of 1994 and 1995, Nellie attended The University of Minnesota where she was the starting sweeper. While with the Golden Gophers, she was selected for the 1994 Sportsmanship Award and 1995 All-Big Ten Academic Team. Nellie was also a member of the 1995 Big Ten Women's Soccer Champions – The University of Minnesota Women's Soccer Team. For her Junior and Senior seasons, Nellie transferred to The University of Alabama. As the starting sweeper once again, The Crimson Tide participated in the SEC tournament in both 1996 and 1997 providing a strong showing in both tournaments. Individually, Nellie made the 1997 SEC All-Tournament Team, NSCAA All Central Team in 1997, NSCAA All Central Team in 1996, WTTU Player of the Week in 1996, The Most Valuable Player – The University of Alabama in 1997, The Coaches' Award – The University of Alabama – 1996, and Team Captain – The University of Alabama – 1996. Nellie finished her career with the Crimson Tide in 1997, and since that time has been a member of the Shelton State Community College Women's Soccer Coaching Staff. She became the full time head coach in 2001.

Since coaching at Shelton, her teams have compiled a record of 49-33-6. Her team's accomplishments include the following: making a visit to the NJCAA District F Finals (2003), Regional semifinalists (2004), four All-Region Player selections, two Academic All-Americans, and selected as an NJCAA Academic Team of the Year twice (2003 and 2004).

Nellie has a Bachelor of Science in Education and a Master of Arts in Higher Education Administration. She is married to Hunter Christian, Ed.D. and has two daughters, Reagan (3) and Ainsley (1).

Carter Hill is in his first season as the assistant coach of the Shelton State Women's soccer program. A native of Northport, Carter graduated from the University of Alabama with a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology and a Master of Arts degree in secondary education with an emphasis in English. For the past eight years, Carter has been the Boys' Varsity soccer coach at Hillcrest High School in Tuscaloosa, compiling a 90-52-9 record including one region co-championship and two second place finishes earning trips to three sub-state playoffs. Last year, he also coached the Girls' Varsity soccer team who earned a 12-7-1 record including a second place finish in the Island Cup Classic in Gulf Shores. He is married to Kristi Babb Hill, formerly of Hamilton, Alabama, and the couple resides in Northport.
